COUNTDOWN TO THE DEDICATION

Why do we Dedicate?

In the late 300s, there was a couple unable to have children, and therefore had no one in which to leave their inheritance. They made a decision to give it in a way which would somehow honor Mary, the Mother of God. They prayed, asking for guidance on how to dispose of their possessions. On August 5th both the couple and Pope Liberius had a vision of the Virgin Mary, and a miraculous snow fell during the heat of the Roman summer on an area which would become the outline of the Basilica of Saint Mary Major. It was God who determined where his Church would be – it was up to the Pope to provide a building to house what God had given.

The same is true here at Holy Trinity. It is God who chooses this place, God who chooses Ladera Ranch, and it was his inspiration that gave us a name that describes his very being - Holy Trinity. It is a place where his blessings, grace, and sacraments will abound. It was our Bishop, with the help of Fr. Reynold, who received the charge to build a place where God could touch our lives in a more real way.

There are only four days that the Church celebrates dedications on the official calendar. Basilica of St. Mary Major, Basilica of St. John Lateran, Basilicas of St. Peter and St Paul Outside the Walls (celebrated together) and Holy Trinity in Ladera Ranch. That's right! November 11th will become a Solemnity for our parish which we will celebrate every year. We celebrate God being with us in a way different than at any other parish.

Because the Church is a physical building, it stands as a special sign of the pilgrim Church on earth and reflects the Church dwelling in heaven. Therefore, when Holy Trinity is built and is destined solely and permanently as a gathering place for the people of God and for carrying out sacred functions, it is necessary that it be dedicated to God with a solemn rite following the ancient traditions of the Church.

The Church is a place where heaven and earth meet. It is a place of dignity, a place of beauty – not just through the use of rich adornments – and a place of order which is expressed through the liturgy. It stands as a sign of the things of heaven. Therefore, it is crucial that every aspect of the Church and those who assist reflect the excellence and genuineness of the True Catholic Faith. Even the construction is important. After all, it was God who gave us the gifts of raw materials, and it is us who use these gifts to create something beautiful and worthy to give back to him.

Together, as we get closer to the dedication, we will be looking at several aspects of this including the different parts of the Church, the beauty of the Sacred Liturgy, the postures (yes, we will have kneelers!), the scriptures used, and many other aspects.

Come, travel with me!

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
The Cross of Forgiveness

Why should we forgive those who hurt us? The gospel this Sunday gives three reasons: First, because Jesus commands it. Second, because forgiveness is part of loving one another. And third, because we want to be forgiven for our sins. Obviously, Jesus expects us to forgive one another. Here he commands us to forgive unceasingly, without limit. Now that could be a challenge for even the most patient person. So does forgiveness exclude tough love? Does it mean we have to let someone hurt us over and over? No, it is possible to forgive someone and also prevent them from hurting us, if we do it with love (the second reason.) For instance, we might forgive an alcoholic family member, but still insist that they get help. We can forgive a son or daughter who breaks the law, but still let them face the consequences so they learn from their mistake. We may forgive a friend who borrows money without repaying it, but still refer them to a credit counselor, instead of lending them more money. Since forgiveness is part of love, it is also part of tough love.

That leads to the third reason: We forgive because we want to be forgiven. Or more accurately, we forgive because we have been forgiven. Jesus has already died for our sins. His resurrection shows us that the Father accepted the sacrifice of his Son Jesus for our sins. If we truly believe that Jesus is risen and that we will rise to eternal life with him in spite of our sins, how can we refuse to forgive someone who hurts us? When we promise to take up our cross each day to follow Jesus, we must remember why Jesus took up his cross and realize that we have to forgive as he does. That is why the cross is such a powerful symbol. It challenges us to accept suffering for Jesus' sake. It reminds us that sometimes our cross is simply forgiving someone rather than hurting them back or hating them. If Jesus gave his life to forgive us, how willing are we to spread that forgiveness around?
