

Discipleship Project

By Joe Kopiec

I did my discipleship project at Holy Trinity Catholic Church where I usher and did this because I wanted to be connected more to my community at Church and help out to make more of a difference. One of the Catholic Social teachings being displayed in my discipleship was the call to community and participation because it brought me closer to my community and helped me seek to get together with the community and the common good and well being of all.

