

Photo from a luncheon at St Junipero Serra Catholic School, my former middle school, the purpose of which was to gather donations for tuition assistance.

I served as a table server and a waiter. I served a table of parents from my high school, the table having a theme of an enchanted garden.

This is an example of the Catholic Social Teaching of “Option for the poor and vulnerable”. This is because we are providing money for poor families to attend a catholic school.