Helping my grandma.

Where: Orange/Buena Park

When: March 2023

How: Helped her up the stairs, brought groceries for her, talked to her on the phone throughout the month out of my own will, simply just chatting with her.

Why: Why not? It's a kind thing to do.

Helping my mom in the garden.

Where: Ladera Ranch

When: March 2023

How: Harvesting sugary sweetpeas that would then be given to a neighbor, watering the plants, planting new plants

Why: It's nice to help someone and give them something without expecting anything in return, as well as tending to God's creation.
