

The Organization:

Act of service:

Wrote thank you cards to first responders in the military through Operation Gratitude.

I created the cards at home and mailed them to the program.

I contributed using this program because there are people who are working for our country who deserve our gratitude.

Catholic Social Teaching:

Call to family, community, and participation
This act of service goes under this teaching because it is to help those who are in need of thanks.

