

Discipleship service hours.

- I have decided to make blankets for the Linus Project because I want to help kids in need. They are based out of San Diego, California. I did this in March of 2023. The catholic social teaching this falls under is the option for the poor and vulnerable. This is because the kids receiving the blankets are hospitalized, traumatized, or otherwise in need.

